

A SEAMLESS SOLUTION FOR BOLDER BUSINESSES

Currencycloud simplifies business in a multi-currency world and provides the global expansion expertise, enabling you to go to market fast. We offer a comprehensive and modular B2B cross-border wallet solution to businesses dealing with international payments – all built through innovative APIs and cloud technology.

COLLECT

Provide unique multi-currency named accounts to your customers.

Collect funds locally, issue IBANs, account numbers and bank credentials for our major currencies; GBP, EUR, CAD and USD.

Collect and hold more than 33 currencies from 52 countries via SWIFT, including Singapore, Australia, Hong Kong, Japan.

CONVERT

Handle foreign exchange for 37 currencies around the world, including major currencies such as GBP, EUR, USD and Asia-Pacific currencies such as AUD, SGD, HKD, CNY, INR, THB.

Access real-time, wholesale FX rates with the ability to add margin and generate revenue.

Book trades that settle instantly or lock-in FX rates up to a year in advance; you can also cancel, change the date and draw it down.

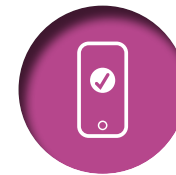

PAY

Automate payments via local payment networks such as Faster Payments (GBP), SEPA (EUR), ACH (USD), FAST (SGD), AusPayNet (AUD), CHATS (HKD).

Send payments to over 180 countries.

Real-time validation and verification of beneficiaries on payments.

Track and trace your SWIFT payments with our payment tracking tool for improved visibility and transparency.

MANAGE

Hold multiple currencies on account and access balance information in any currency.

Issue your customers named accounts while maintaining control.

Real-time visibility and instant updates with automated notifications.

Download payments and conversions reports at the click of a button.

THREE ROUTES, ONE GREAT PLATFORM

You can choose to build your own platform using our modular approach and cutting-edge APIs for an enhanced customer experience, or opt for our white label solution to go live with speed and ease.

API integration

Our APIs are built for developers, by developers. Designed for businesses that want to fully control their user experience, our toolkit of RESTful APIs rapidly delivers bespoke solutions for you and your customers with a simple integration.

Currencycloud Direct

Currencycloud Direct is a ready-made platform for managing customer transactions. You can access all the benefits and insights of a platform management tool, fast, without having to do any development.

Currencycloud White Label

A personalized solution for you and your customers. If you want to offer a service that is personalised with your brand but want to save time, money and avoid any development or integration work, this could be the option for you!
