Any sums owed by you to us under these Terms of Use shall become immediately due and payable on the expiration or termination of our Commercial Agreement with you.

13. ARBITRATION

13.1 Dispute resolution and arbitration. Any controversy, dispute or claim relating to these Terms of Use, or the interpretation, enforceability, or validity of these Terms of Use that cannot be resolved informally by the Parties' day-to-day business managers ("Dispute") will be only and finally resolved pursuant to this section.

13.2 Direct business negotiations. The Parties will use their best efforts to resolve any Dispute by good faith negotiation between executives who have authority to resolve the Dispute. Upon the written request of any Party, the Parties will arrange for their respective senior representatives to meet within thirty (30) days for the purpose of resolving such Dispute on reasonable terms to both Parties. No proceeding may be commenced under Section 13.3 (Arbitration) until, at least fourteen (14) days after such meeting, a Party's senior representative communicates to the other Party his or her good faith conclusion that an amicable resolution of the matter is unlikely. Any discussions undertaken pursuant to this section will be confidential compromise and settlement negotiations without prejudice to any Party's right to any other remedy in law or equity or under these Terms of Use.

13.3 Arbitration. Any Dispute that remains unresolved following the negotiations undertaken pursuant to Section 13.2 (Direct business negotiations) will be solely and finally settled by confidential arbitration in accordance with these Terms of Use and, where not inconsistent with these Terms of Use, with the Fast Track Arbitration Rules of Procedure (or similar rules then in effect) of the Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR), which rules are hereby incorporated by reference. The location of the arbitration will be in New York, NY, U.S.A. The arbitration will be conducted in English by a panel of three (3) neutral arbitrators, with each Party selecting one (1) arbitrator and the two (2) appointed arbitrators then jointly selecting the third. The Parties agree that discovery or exchange of non-privileged information will be limited to those documents a Party intends to use in evidence at the hearing and other reasonable discovery as directed by the panel. Unless applicable law or these Terms of Use say otherwise, the panel is not empowered to award punitive or exemplary damages, pre-award interest or any incidental, indirect or consequential damages including lost profits or harm suffered by third parties. All costs and expenses of the arbitrators will be borne by the Parties equally, and each Party will bear its own arbitration costs, including its attorneys' fees and travel expenses. A reasoned award will be issued in writing by the panel and will be final and binding upon the Parties. If not fully satisfied within thirty (30) days, such award may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction and each Party hereby consents to the jurisdiction of such court solely for the purposes of complying with this section and the award granted in accordance with it. Nothing in these Terms of Use limits the right of a Party to obtain provisional, injunctive, or ancillary remedies from a court of competent jurisdiction before, after, or during the pendency of any arbitration. Neither Party has the right to arbitrate on a class or representative basis any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to these Terms of Use, or the interpretation, enforceability, or validity of these Terms of Use, including, without limitation, this section.

The following provisions will apply to Payment Services – Global Account:

1. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS; SERVICE PROVIDERS. This Schedule sets out important rights and obligations when you open a Global Account and ask us to provide Payment Services – Global Account. As set forth in your Commercial Agreement with us, your Global Account and the Payment Services – Global Account are provided to you by the Service Provider identified in the Commercial Agreement. THIS SCHEDULE 1 IS ONLY APPLICABLE IF YOUR GLOBAL ACCOUNT AND THE PAYMENT SERVICES – GLOBAL ACCOUNT ARE PROVIDED TO YOU BY VGSI. If the Global Account and the Payment Services – Global Account are provided to you by a different Service Provider, please instead refer to the terms and conditions of that Service Provider.

2. ACCOUNT STATUS. Your Global Account is a stored value account issued by VGSI as a licensed money transmitter (as applicable) which enables you to store funds and send and receive electronic payments. Where you close your Global Account as described below, we will seek to promptly return any funds held in your Global Account to you, except as prohibited by applicable law or otherwise in accordance with these Terms of Use.

You can fund your Global Account and make payments from your Global Account. For these purposes, making payments from your Global Account includes making payments to third party beneficiaries or instructing funds in your Global Account to be transferred to another account in your name with a third party.

Except as otherwise provided for in these Terms of Use, no person other than the holder of the Global Account has any rights in relation to the funds held in a Global Account and you may not assign or transfer your Global Account to a third party or otherwise grant any third party a legal or equitable interest over it unless a court or competent regulatory body requires you to in which case we shall use all commercially reasonable endeavors to assist you in executing such assignment, transfer or grant.

Your Global Account may be subject to funding, payment, or conversion limits due to security and legal requirements as determined by us from time to time at our reasonable discretion. You may be asked to answer security questions or to complete other processes that we may reasonably require in relation to any funding or payment transaction. If we are lawfully able to, we shall notify you in writing as soon as is reasonably practicable following any determination that funding or payment limits are to be imposed.

We reserve the right in our reasonable discretion to carry out all and any necessary money laundering, terrorism financing, fraud or other illegal activity checks before processing any payment transaction to or from your Global Account.

Certain transactions may be subject to fees, as set forth in your Commercial Agreement.

3. OPENING AN ACCOUNT. In order to use our Payment Services – Global Account, you must first open a Global Account with us. By opening a Global Account with us, you are also confirming that you (i) have regular access to the internet and email and (ii) are able to store information sent to you by email and other electronic means including by Currencycloud Direct in a Durable Medium by printing out or otherwise retaining for future reference all electronic communications sent and information made available to you by us (via Currencycloud Direct or by email or telephone). It is for you to ensure that your contact details are up to date and that you are able to access any such communications and information at all times.

4. MAINTAINING AN ACCOUNT. You must ensure that the information recorded on your Global Account is always complete, accurate and up to date and we shall not be liable for any loss arising out of your failure to do so. We may ask you at any time to confirm and/or provide documents or other evidence as to the accuracy of this information.

We may contact you via Currencycloud Direct or by email with information or notices regarding your Global Account and Payment Services – Global Account. It is your responsibility to regularly check the proper functionality of your email account or other methods of communication that you have registered with your Global Account and to retrieve and read messages relating to your Global Account and Payment Services – Global Account promptly. We shall not be liable for any loss arising out of your failure to do so.

Funding, payments or conversions are displayed in your Global Account and you should check your Global Account balance and transaction history regularly. You should report any irregularities or clarify any questions you have as soon as possible by contacting Client Support.

5. CLOSING AN ACCOUNT. You may close your Global Account at any time by contacting Client Support and withdrawing any surplus balance held at that time. If you do not withdraw your balance before closing your Global Account, we will seek to automatically return any remaining funds to you, except as prohibited by applicable law or otherwise in accordance with these Terms of Use.

6. FUNDING YOUR ACCOUNT & RECEIVING PAYMENT. Funds paid by you or a third party will generally be credited to your Global Account on the Business Day they are received. If we receive funds after 4:30 p.m. on a Business Day or on a day that is not a Business Day, funds will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day. In the event we make available funds that are later returned or reversed, you agree and understand that we will debit the funds from your Global Account and, in the event that we are unable to do so, you agree to immediately reimburse us such funds from other sources. Without limiting the foregoing, we reserve the right to debit your Global Account and/or Margin Account for any fees or costs associated with debiting, correcting, or reversing an entry or a transaction which is later returned to us.

In the event that the funds are subject to a reversal, we will deduct such reversed transaction from the balance of your Global Account. If your Global Account balance is insufficient to cover the reversal, we reserve the right to require repayment from you.

You should regularly reconcile incoming payments with your own records. You should be aware that the crediting of funds to your Global Account does not mean that these transactions cannot be reversed. We reserve the right to place a hold on, and or reverse, a payment where the Payer or the Payer's bank or payment service provider has reversed (or is reasonably likely to reverse) a payment to your Global Account.

All payments to us must be ascribed to a clear and complete reference so that we may credit the funds to your Global Account. Further details as to what references must be used are set out in the Client Help Center.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you provide accurate, complete and correct instructions for each incoming payment so that we may appropriately allocate the funds to your Global Account. If no instructions or incorrect information is provided, then we will not be able to credit your Global Account. In such cases, we will not be liable for any loss you incur, although we will use reasonable efforts to investigate and credit or return any such payments to or from your Global Account.

7. SENDING PAYMENT. We will send payments in accordance with your or your Authorized Persons' instructions to third party beneficiaries or another account held in your name that you specify to us in accordance with your instructions. When making payments to yourself and not to a third-party beneficiary, we will only make a payment to a bank account where you are the named holder of such bank account.

All payment instructions must be made through the Transaction Platform.

It is your responsibility to ensure that accurate, complete, and correct payment instructions for the beneficiary of a payment (including payments to yourself) are provided to us through the Transaction Platform. This includes but is not limited to providing us with correct details for the beneficiary to which you would like the payment sent. If you provide incorrect beneficiary details, we will not be liable for any loss you incur, although we will use reasonable efforts to assist you in the recovery of your payment. We reserve the right to charge you a fee to cover our reasonable costs for doing this.

You are required to provide us with any additional information that we request with regard to a payment within two (2) Business Days of our request and agree and understand that we may hold such payment until you provide, and we are able to review, any such additional information.

You consent to us including your full name, address, and account number (and any other details as are required to enable us to comply with our anti money laundering procedures) on the payment details to be sent to the beneficiary's bank or payment service provider to comply with anti-money laundering regulations. If you instruct us to make payment to a new or an existing beneficiary, and your beneficiary account details are provided via an oral Instruction (such as by telephone, video conferencing or other similar means) or otherwise by a communication that is not in writing then we will send you an email containing the beneficiary account details you have provided.

You or an Authorized Person may revoke or cancel a payment instruction for a future outgoing payment transaction at any time prior to payment execution through the Transaction Platform.

You or an Authorized Person are responsible for confirming via the Transaction Platform that a payment instruction has been received and processed by us. We are not liable for any loss in circumstances where erroneous duplicate payment instructions are sent to us by you or an Authorized Person.

If we receive a payment instruction (through the Transaction Platform) by 4:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on a Business Day, your payment instruction will be deemed to have been received by us on that Business Day. If your payment instruction is received after 4:30 p.m. or on a day that is not a Business Day, your payment instruction will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day. Your payment instruction will be acted on the earliest possible payment date unless you have requested a specific future date. The payment cycles are shown here Payment Timelines.

You must notify us by telephone or in writing as soon as is reasonably practicable after you become aware of any unauthorized or incorrectly executed payments, otherwise we may not be liable to you and in order to claim a refund for an unauthorized or incorrectly executed payment transaction on your Global Account you must notify us without undue delay after becoming aware of the unauthorized or incorrect transaction and in any event no later than ninety (90) days after the debit date of the transaction.

International money transfers often require funds to be transmitted between multiple intermediaries beyond our own direct payment service providers. These intermediaries or the beneficiary bank may deduct a charge. You acknowledge that these charges cannot always be calculated in advance and that you agree to be responsible for such charges. We will not be liable for Losses that result from such charges being applied to your payment.

We may refuse your payment Instruction because for example you are in material breach of these Terms of Use or we have a reasonable basis to believe that you may be a victim of fraud or that a crime or violation of law, rule, or regulation has occurred, is occurring, or may occur. In these circumstances, we shall promptly notify you using your supplied contact details, stating wherever possible the reasons for our refusal, and the procedure for rectifying any payment detail errors that led to the refusal, but we reserve the right to charge you a fee to cover our reasonable costs for doing this. We are not obliged to notify you of our refusal to execute the proposed transaction where we reasonably believe that such a notification would be unlawful.

8. TRANSACTION CONFIRMATIONS. When you initiate a payment to load funds to your Global Account, or make a payment that is funded from your Global Account, we will provide you with a transaction confirmation (a "Receipt") that includes relevant information about the transaction, such as time, amount, and the third-party recipient.

9. PROHIBITED PAYMENTS. We reserve the right, in our reasonable discretion to impose on you additional or different conditions in relation to the operation of your Global Account and the provision of any payment service including the prohibition of certain categories of payment transactions for example payments in relation to the gaming, bitcoins and virtual currencies sectors by specifying these on the Website.

You must not use your Global Account for any illegal purposes including without limitation fraud and money laundering. We will report any suspicious activity to the relevant law enforcement agency.

If you conduct or attempt to conduct any transaction in violation of the prohibitions contained in this section we reserve the right to reverse the transaction, and/or close or suspend your Global Account and/or report the transaction to the relevant law enforcement agency and/or claim damages from you.

10. PERMISSIBLE INVESTMENTS. Funds equal to or exceeding the amount of your Global Account stored value balance stored value are held by, and may be invested by us, in certain eligible investments in accordance with Money Transmission Laws ("Permissible Investments"). We own the interest or other earnings on these investments. However, any claim against us represented by your Global Account balance is not secured by these investments and you do not have any ownership interest (either legal or beneficial) in these investments. These investments are held apart from our corporate funds, and we will neither use these funds for our operating expenses or any other business purposes nor voluntarily make such funds available to creditors in the event of bankruptcy unless ordered by a court of proper jurisdiction or otherwise mandated by applicable law.

When you transfer funds to us to pay a deposit in respect of a Forward Contract, full ownership, and title to these funds transfer to us, and such funds are considered our funds, subject to these funds being applied against your payment obligations upon the settlement or closing out of the Forward Contract(s). - 3. EXECUTION ONLY. We shall not provide you with any advice in connection with the Services (such as, whether to proceed or not to proceed with a Contract and in respect of timing). We may provide market information, but this shall not constitute investment advice. We cannot accept responsibility for your decision to enter into a Contract. Any decision to transact is your decision and we will not be liable for any loss or opportunity loss if exchange rates move before or after you transact.

You agree that you will use Contracts in connection with your lawful future payment needs and not for any speculative or investment purpose. We may decline to deal with you if we have reason to believe that you are using any Contract or the Services for investment or speculative purposes and we may Close Out a Contract in accordance with Section 7 of this Schedule.

- 4. FORWARD CONTRACTS. You hereby agree to enter into Forward Contracts only for the purpose of facilitating payment for identifiable goods, services or direct investment. You agree that we reserve the right to decline to accept an instruction in respect of a Forward Contract if we reasonably believe that you intend to enter into the Forward Contract for purposes other than those listed above.
- 5. INSTRUCTIONS AND ORDERS. Upon request, we may provide you or an Authorized Person with an exchange rate quote. This quote is given on an indicative basis only and we are not legally bound to perform a proposed Contract in accordance with this quote.

You or an Authorized Person can give us electronic or verbal instructions relating to a transaction for the purchase or sale and delivery of currency. We will at our sole discretion offer the commercial terms of a proposed Contract. These terms will include amongst other things the exchange rate we are offering which may be different from a quote you have previously been given by us.

Once you or an Authorized Person accepts the commercial terms of the Contract (by electronic or verbal or by any other means), you will become legally bound to perform the Contract in accordance with the terms of the Order. Following receipt of an Order, we shall subsequently transmit electronically to you a trade confirmation, which will confirm the details of the Order.

Once we have agreed an Order, you or an Authorized Person may not amend or cancel the Contract unless we expressly agree (and any such amendment or cancellation shall be on the conditions specified by us). If you or an Authorized Person elects to cancel or amend a Contract, you must pay a fee which is set out in our Commercial Agreement with you. Please see the daily cut-off times available at <http://help.currencycloud.com> for settlement times.

If funds do not arrive on or before the Settlement Date and Time, we may at our sole discretion roll the trade to the next settlement day and apply a charge in accordance with the provisions of our Commercial Agreement with you, or Close Out the Contract. Where practicable, we will give notice to you before rolling the trade to the next settlement day. We will deliver bought currency funds into your Global Account on a specified Contract Delivery Date.

7. DISPUTES. If a dispute arises between you and us relating to the existence or terms of any Contract (a “Disputed Contract”), we may at our sole discretion Close Out the Disputed Contract pending settlement of the dispute. We will notify you (orally or in writing) of such action as soon as practical but if we do not the validity of any action by us shall not be affected.

- (d) you fail to pay Margin or additional Margin by the due date as requested by us;
- (e) you fail to pay the deposit or additional deposit by the due date requested by us;
- (f) an Insolvency Event occurs or you take steps to or suspend payment of your debts;
- (g) you fail in any respect to fully and promptly comply with any obligations owed to us, or if any information supplied by you or any representations made by you are or become materially inaccurate;
- (h) it becomes or may become unlawful for us to maintain or to provide any of the Services; or
- (i) we consider it necessary to do so for our own protection including (without limitation) in the following circumstances: (i) protection from fraud; (ii) protection from your default; and (iii) protection from broad-based market failure.

Where practicable, we will provide you with notice prior to making the decision to refuse to perform or Close Out a Contract, save in the circumstances described in clauses (h) or (i) above where it may not be possible for us to give prior notice.

If you become aware of the occurrence of any such event or any circumstances that mean that any such event is likely to occur, you must notify us immediately.

If any event referred to above takes place, we shall, at our discretion, be entitled to cancel any outstanding Contracts and charge you all of the costs, expenses and Losses that we may incur (including any action we may take to cover or reduce our exposure). Any Margin held by us in respect of Contracts shall be returned to you after deducting all other sums due to us (including any fees or Losses resulting from closing out the Contract). We reserve the right to select which Contracts are subject to Close Out irrespective of any End Customer including without limitation in circumstances where an End Customer has made a payment of Margin direct to us. However, we will make reasonable efforts to contact you before Close Out of any Contract.

10. MARGIN. We shall require Margin on demand as collateral to protect Currencycloud from financial Losses which it may incur as a result of Contracts being Closed Out (either on your request or at our discretion).

We reserve the right to increase the Margin required at any stage up to the Settlement Date and Time to allow for changes in the foreign exchange rate or volatility which we believe may increase our risk under the contract. We may make a Margin call to increase Margin held at any point. The Margin call will be for such sum as we consider necessary.

Full ownership and title to all funds sent to us as Margin shall transfer to us absolutely and you, or any party acting on your behalf, shall have no interest in such funds which we will be entitled to deal with in our own right. For the avoidance of doubt, this means that we have the right to pledge or grant a security interest over it, or transfer or deposit it to or with an exchange or clearing house, a broker, a bank or any other financial institution or payment service provider.

All and any part of Margin may be applied across all and any Contracts.

You, or any party acting on your behalf, shall not be entitled at any time to the return of any Margin without our prior written consent.

Our Margin Policy is available on request.

11. PAYMENT OF MARGIN. Margin must be paid to us in cleared funds whether from funds available in your Global Account or otherwise funded by you if applicable. In all cases, Margin or additional Margin must be paid into an account specified by us to you in an amount specified by us.

All requests for Margin or additional Margin must be paid to us within one Business Day of our request.

If our Margin requirements have not been met in full, Services cannot commence or continue, and the trade will not be executed. We reserve the right to Close Out any Contract if any payment of Margin or Margin call is not made by the due date.

12. DEPOSIT. In our sole discretion, we will require you to pay us an initial deposit in respect of a Forward Contract. We reserve the right to increase the deposit required at any stage up to the Settlement Date and Time. This may be required to allow for changes in the foreign exchange rate. The deposit or additional deposit required will be for such sum as we consider necessary. Full ownership and title to all funds sent to us as deposits shall transfer to us, subject to these funds being applied against your payment obligations upon the settlement or closing out of the Forward Contract(s). For the avoidance of doubt, this means that we have the right to pledge or grant a security interest over a deposit or transfer a deposit to an exchange or clearing house, a broker, a bank or any other financial institution or payment service provider.

13. DATE CHANGE. In our sole discretion, you may alter the Settlement Date and Delivery Date of a contract. This will incur a fee as set out in our Commercial Agreement with you.

14. END CUSTOMERS. We are not a principal to any transaction and are not responsible for and do not otherwise guarantee the performance of any transaction entered into by you with an End Customer. We deal with you as Principal only and assume no obligations to End Customers unless you are a Business Introducer, in which case, our obligations are set forth in the End Customer Terms of Use.
